New York, June 15.

A statement is published by Gen. Halleck in which he says the orders issued by him relative to the movement of troops, after Sherman's arrangement with Johnston, have been disobeyed.

The Times' Washington special says we are now enabled to form some idea of the length of time the Military Commission will be further engaged in the trial of the assassins. By arrangement among the counsel, the argument of Hon. Reverly Johnson will be read on Friday. This will be followed by an argument of and, on Saturday, Mr. Cox will present the defense of O'Loughlin on Monday. Mr. Alken will sum up, finally, on behalf of Mrs. Surratt, on Tuesday. Payne and Atzerott's counsel presents his arguments on Wednesday. Mr. Ewing sums up in behalf of Mudd, Spangler and Harold.

It is believed that Judge Advocate Gen. Holt will present the final argument in behalf of the prosecution on Saturday, the 24th inst., and on Monday following the Commission will conclude its work by the finding and sentence. The sentence cannot be, under the rule, promulgated until it has been approved by the not be reacted before the first day of July. A delegation of colored men from Richmond arrived here to-day to seek an audience with the President. They represent that under the military restrictions in Richmond their condition is not better than it was when they were in slavery, and they propose to ask that a special inquiry be made as to the facts, in order that a proper remedy may be applied to place them on a footing in consonance with the liberal and enlightened policy of the Government, as to the other colored population in the South.

Petitions for pardon from the leading men of the late rebellion are coming in men of no whose petitions were received to-day are Major General Edward Johnston and Joseph R. Sanders, of Tredgegar Iron Works. A clause is now inserted in the pardon intended to prevent the applicant from claiming in the courts exemption from the operations of the confiscation acts, thus leaving the settlement of the matter of confiscation of rebel property to the courts and Congress hereafter, where the facts are such as call for relief.

The Herald's Richmond correspondent says General Terry has arrived there and assumed command of the Department of Virginia, in place of General Ord, who

A band of guerrillas, 500 strong, have lately collected in Patrick county, Virginia, threatening the inhabitants with vengeance. Four have been arrested and two at once tried, convicted and sentenced to be shot. The others were sent to the penitentiary.

The Tribune's Washington special says Sherman's friends assert that Halleck's placing the responsibility for his order on Grant, is a dishonest quibble. Grant notified Halleck of the Government's disapproval, but the specific annullment was Halleck's, and unknown to Grant.

Sherman has a letter from Halleck, in which he says in what he did he was only carrying out what he knew to be the TORONTO, Can., June 14.

Last evening, as a party consisting of Mr. E. Coleman, Miss Carrie Coleman, Miss Kate Gage, Miss Creighton and Geo. Creighton, were rowing in the Desjardines canal, the steamer Argyle passed them, capsizing their boat. Efforts were made to save them but, unfortunately, all except Geo. Creighton were drowned.

BRANTFORD, Can., June 14.
A very destructive fire occurred here at 10 o'clock this morning, raging till 5 o'clock. About half the business portion of the town was destroyed. The fire was

OMAHA, June 4.

About 500 Sioux Indians in camp fifteen miles west of St. Mitchell, and supposed to be friendly, this morning attacked a guard of 100 men, under Capt. Foulkes, of the Eleventh Ohio veteran cavalry, killing Capt. Foulkes and four men, and wounding seven.

A number of the Indians were killed. The Indians crossed over to the north side of the Platte river.
